

The Environmental Protection Agency's Proposed Approval of New Hampshire's Revised Underground Storage Tank Program

The New Hampshire State Underground Storage Tank (UST) program applied to the EPA for approval of revisions to its UST program. The EPA has determined that revisions to the New Hampshire UST program satisfy all requirements for approval. The EPA has published a Proposed Rule and Direct Final Rule in the Federal Register dated November 1, 2019. To access EPA's proposed rule, EPA's direct final rule, New Hampshire' application, or to provide public comments, please follow these links to the Federal Register.
